

Have you heard the big news?

Dear STCB School Families,

Once again, St. Catherine of Bologna School is participating in the New York Jets Tackle Bullying and STOMP Out Bullying™ School Recognition Program. The main goal of this program is to help students combat bullying and continue to create a positive and caring climate in their school.

As part of the program the New York Jets lead a unique school initiative called “Jets Upstander of the Week.” For each of the 16 playing weeks during the football season, the Jets will ask schools to select a student who demonstrates upstanding qualities and honor them as the “Jets Upstander of the Week”. Each school will be provided with 16 t-shirts and bumper stickers to award the winning students. In addition, schools will receive enough tickets to give each winner 3 tickets to a New York Jets home game. The Jets have asked the schools to tweak the program to fit the climate of each particular school.

At St. Catherine of Bologna School we are recognizing those students who are seen consistently displaying good school citizenship, for example: the students put forth good effort to follow the Golden Rule, school policies, and the other expectations of the school community. These students help spread a positive and kind atmosphere throughout the school community. It is from this group of students that one student per week will be randomly chosen to win the Jets tickets.

The St. Catherine of Bologna school students, faculty, and staff have “kicked” the school year off by continuing our kindness campaign from last year. Walk down the hall and you will see the Y. E. S. group’s Kindness Kids displayed, the “Upstanding School Members” recognition wall, and the Jets Upstander of the Week ticket winner display.

The Golden Rule: Treat others as you would like others to treat you.

Keep the kindness going!!!
