Michael Nosal

Michael Nosal was born in Queens, New York City and began playing the piano at the age of 5. While attending the High School of Music and Art he performed Gershwin's Rhapsody in Blue with orchestra. He received his Bachelor's and Master's degrees from Manhattan School of Music and the Juilliard School, studying with Constance Keene, Martin Canin, and Joseph Kalichstein; master classes in Europe with Vitaly Margulis and Justus Franz. Mr. Nosal gave annual faculty recitals at the Third Street Music School in NYC, where he taught piano for ten years in addition to having performed chamber music at festivals in Maine, Ohio and New York. He is a recipient of the Margaret Baiz Memorial Award from the National Arts Club. Mr. Nosal has taught at the Ringwood School of Music since 2004, and is Protecting God's Children certified.

Elisabeth Nosal

Elisabeth, nee Keil, was born in the town of Teaneck, NJ and has been a resident of Ringwood all her life. She attended the Ringwood schools including the St. Catherine of Bologna School. She began her piano studies at the age of 3 1/2. Mrs. Nosal attended the Juilliard precollege division and later received her BM at Manhattan School of Music. She took part at several international music seminars in the cities of Weimar, Salzburg, and Fontainebleau. Mrs. Nosal has been teaching piano for over 20 years in the town of Ringwood and in 2003, founded the Ringwood School of Music. Elisabeth also enjoys performing classical music as soloist & duo pianist in the NJ/NY area. Elisabeth has completed the Protecting God's Children required course.
